WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1864.

A HINT TO THE PRESIDENT

Notwithstanding the apparent prosperity of Buenos Ayres, and the great increase in almost every branch of business, there is a settled conviction amongst all thinking men, that the actual position of the republic is critical in the extreme. This conviction arises not from the great agitation which is going on amongst politicians, still less from the fear that our liberties are imperilled, but from the fact that the whole Government machinery seems to have got out of order. We have now had sufficient experience to convince us all of two facts.

First, that the confederate system of Government is the best suited for these provinces; secondly, that the present form of National and Provincial Government is too expensive for us, under the circumstances.

With the proof of these facts pain fully obvious, we think it not an unreasonable question to put to our ex-Liberal legislators. By what incongruity will the administrative force, which must inevitably result either in civil war or hopeless bankruptcy, be continued?

Strangers, as we are, to local influence, and looking at the real state of the country with impartial eyes, we do most unhesitatingly assert, that if the interests of the country were consulted, there should be but one government for the whole nation.

We know full well the difficulties attending such a sweeping reform; but sooner or later the people will see, themselves, that our observations are well founded. Bartholomew Mitre, although the titular President of this nation, has as little power as the meanest alcalde. It is said to rule, that he cannot even move a regiment of soldiers from one place to another without strife and bloodshed.

Blind, indeed, is the man who cannot see that the provinces are individually more powerful than the nation collectively. When things arrive at such a crisis, it behoves the chief ruler of such a nation to seriously consider the easiest and safest reform which can be introduced.

Congress is now about to assemble, and we trust some honest, intrepid member will courageously depict the state of the country. In Buenos Ayres, notwithstanding that the majority of the people are in favour of the National Government, there is a clique which backed up as it is, by the Provincial Government, is doing much to thwart and keeping us all in a continual ferment.

In Entre Rios, the National authority would long since cease to have existed, but for the strenuous exertions of a man who is no longer in power, namely, Urquiza.

In Corrientes, the only semblance of national power is in the clerks of the Custom-house. President Mitre's authority is ridiculed throughout the whole province.

In Santa Fe, the only tie which binds the people to President Mitre, is the hope that some one may shoot himself and his ministers will be turned out of Buenos Ayres, and be glad to settle down in Rosario.

In Cordova, the Crados have completely gained the day, and the National Government is only mentioned to form the butt of sarcastic remarks.

In Santiago, Tabada holds sway, and laughs to scorn at federal jurisdiction without the pretence of shyness.

In a word, in every province in the republic, the local governments are supreme, and we verily believe, but for the monthly subsidy, the whole national fabric would fall to pieces.

Under such circumstances, and tossed on such a sea of troubles, President Mitre has a rather difficult card to play, and many are of opinion, that in order to keep in with the provinces, he foments the split between Crados and Cocidos. He has only one card left in his hand to play, and that is, to call upon Congress to amend the constitution, abolish all governments, save his own, make one clean sweep of all the petty provincial administrations, enforce his authority with the sword, make his capital in Buenos Ayres, and send his lieutenants into the interior. If he has courage, he will adopt this course, which to our mind is the only means of rescuing this country from ruin.

THE REIGN OF TERROR.

Last week a man was attacked on the Barracas road, in broad daylight, his head fended itself with a spade, and three milkmen coming up in time, the robber retreated, but was not captured: the scene of the fait d'armes was near Mr. Billinghurst's quinta.

On Saturday evening a shocking and murderous outrage took place at the corner of calles Tacuari and Comercio. Two ruffians attacked two organ grinders, and seized the poude rous stick from them the latter read their instruments: the organ men could not defend themselves having such unwieldy furniture strapped on their backs. The assailants battered the musicians' heads spanking the sticks thereon, and when the unhappy Italians got free of their organs and ran for their lives, the former set to and destroyed the organs, breaking them into a thousand pieces. A crowd of people looked on as if it were bull baiting, and seemed to enjoy the sport. We have not heard whether the victims were conveyed to hospital or suffered to die in the street as usual. The ruffians walked off after their performance, quite unmolested.

One of the most wanton attempts at murder ever committed in this city of unparalleled crime is recorded in the French paper of Monday. At 12 o'clock on Sunday night some young man were going quietly home, in the calle Parque, between San Martin and Florida, when they were suddenly set upon by a band of scoundrels armed with dagger knives who stabbed two of them right and left in view of the attacked, and then ran off with the hat of one of the victims, crying out "we have done for the d-d gringos." A French gentleman came up to render assistance to the wounded men, and when he saw them bleeding he called the night watch, but these scandalous ruffians, nicknamed Serenos, were very slowly up giving the foot pads time to escape. The police barrack was distant a few yards from the spot, but no effort was made to capture the Bravos; we may add that the recent assassination of the Frenchman took place within 100 yards of the present place, and it seems this street, calle Parque, is unsafe after dark. There is a band of gambling saloons going about who shoot and stab people for the sport of seeing them fall dead in the street. In this manner the poor Neapolitan was shot without a motive, and the two youths on Sunday night were stabbed. Of course the Policia knows nothing about it; innocent people are murdered, their corpses excite surprise, and are buried, that's all.

A few days ago, as we are informed, a fellow went up to a man standing near San Juan church and deliberately stabbed him: the offender was taken to the Policia, and as once liberated as we understand he was a Cocido.

One of the poems on Mr. Fair's estancia, Monte Grande, was fired at, the other day, but fortunately escaped. The assassin was not taken; yet some people maintain the Lomas de Zamora is a model police district. We have the shocking murder at a place called Taballo, near Quilmes. Mrs Young's assassin is in custody, but we question if he will be shot, owing to Argentine clemency towards gaucho: and a poor Irishman is sent to prison on the frontier, for being found with a stray horse!!!

Crimes in the camp are now so frightfully on the increase that we hope the Government will take the matter up.

MR. FLOWER'S LIBERATION.

We have been informed that Mr. Flower has been liberated from prison. As there are many of our readers who may possibly be ignorant of his case we think it right to again give the particulars. Mr. Flower has established a house of business in the Villa Luxan, and was doing a rather good business. Last October, having bought some country produce, he started with his cart and a peon from Luxan to receive same. He arrived late in the evening at the house where he was to load the hides, &c.; a sort of country drinking shop or pulperia was kept at the place. Owing to the lateness of the hour when he arrived, it was dark when he loaded his cart, and the owner of the house invited him to stop over night and leave the next morning. Mr. F. accepted the invitation, and stopped at the house in question. Subsequently certain parties came to the house, and we believe passed the greater part of the night carousing. At break of day Mr. Flower got up and prepared to depart; he slept in the "trastienda," and when leaving the place to harness his horses he met a gaucho at the door—before Flower had time to arrive at his cart, this same gaucho came on him and told him he would not allow him to depart. Flower immediately went to the house, and sent for the alcalde, but this dignitary it appears was at the pulperia at the time, and he told Flower to go quietly until he got the gaucho away. Flower complied, having waited a considerable time within and the gaucho having left the "pulenque." Flower again went out to prepare his cart and horses and leave the place; hardly however had he arrived at the "pulenque" when out rushed the gaucho with a long knife in his hand, and shouting at Flower told him he should not leave, and that he, the gaucho, had to settle accounts with him. Flower turned on the ruffian, and told him to put up his knife before he advanced another step. The gaucho still advanced knife in hand: Flower drew his revolver, and laid the villian dead at his feet. Instead of running away Mr. Flower who believed that he had acted properly in defending his life, offered himself up to the rather astonished alcalde, but the fellow was frightened out of his life, and Flower had he wished might have left the place unmolested. When did he do so? At the solicitation of the parties present he actually put the dead gaucho into his cart, and drove into the Villa Luxan, where he at once proceeded on to the juzgado, and gave himself and the corpse up to the authorities. The justice of the peace, who was told that it was very good man and who knew from several quarters the real merits of the case, told Mr. Flower that unfortunately it was his duty to place him under arrest, but that it would only be for a few days, as he would send in a certificate which would obtain for him his liberation in a few days. This was the last that was heard of Mr. Flower was ordered to town, plunged into prison, and incarcerated for nearly seven months.

Readers, this case of Mr. Flower is one of the most serious that has ever occurred in this country. Had he been convicted of murder and condemned, even though unjustly, we should feel less indignation at the scandalous system of justice, but it was virtually impossible to arrive at any other conclusions but those which every reflecting mind arrives at on taking a calm dispassioned view of the case of Flowers.

The Press of this country is a well read man, possessing varied and superior attainments and yet with all its learning and with all its talents and high qualifications, he cannot discern that the country where such unheard of injustice is tolerated is rotten at the core.

Not if Burke were alive to write his illustrious Edmund Burke as a political philosopher, not if he outshone the immortal Milton as a poetical compositions, shall he escape the lash of ridicule and disapprobation which every honest man hurls at him for following the unfortunate Mr. Flower to be so victimized.

What law, what justice, may we ask, exists in a country where a man is imprisoned six months for merely defending his life against the attacks of an assassin. Better far that Flower had allowed himself to be murdered than murdered him then and there, than that he should have suffered what he has, and ultimately be liberated a ruined man.

Against such an iniquitous system of administering justice we most fearlessly raise our voice, and we call upon all the land where such melancholy injustice is but the exercise of the law. We call upon the President of this country to reform our judiciary system; we ask of him to look into this sad case of Flower, and convince himself of the fact, that no where but in a disorganized country in the world would such unexampled injustice be tolerated.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Trial-trip of the 'Era' did not take place yesterday, owing to the heavy rains which fell on Monday night and Tuesday morning. We learn that Mr. Champion had prepared a splendid dinner at San Fernando. It is probable we shall have no inauguratory pic-nic, as the 'Era' commences running on Thursday next, to-day.

The Tribuna has played a practical joke with the public, stating that Dr. Gonsalez had resolved to burn no more paper-money. The editor afterwards disavows the article in question, and announces that the National Government is about to burn eight million more. To-morrow Mr. Varela will disavow the second announcement, since it is equally untrue, the sum to be burnt and executing four millions dels. at present. The rest will be burnt at short intervals.

The resignation of Sor Sarmiento, who goes to Washington as Argentine plenipotentiary, has caused the elevation of Sor Lloveras to the post of Governor of San Juan. We know nothing of the new rulers but one of the ministers, Don Domingo Oro, who so narrowly escaped in the earthquake of Mendoza, is a most respectable man. The other, who bears the atrocious name of Quiroga, is utterly unknown for any good or bad qualities. By the by, what is the meaning of having two Ministers in San Juan, and only one in Corrientes?

One of our Scotch friends has just rented a estancia of 3¼ leagues at Tapalquen, near the Indian frontier, at 42,000 dols. per annum. He and some of his relations intend to form a large settlement in that district, and thereby lending additional security to the frontier.

Governor Saavedra's fiasco on Sunday is a topic of general diversion, and the Provincial Chambers may form a subject of the most lively caricature for the 'Mosquito.' A grand déjeuner had been laid out in the auto-chamber, but the viands were left untouched, for the assembled guests looked very much like Banquo's, and dared not even enter the saloon, as if detered by the spectres of those who fell on the glorious 22nd of April.

The Liverpool steamer Kepler due this week, having left for the River Plate on the 6th ult. It is to be hoped she will be more fortunate than the "Solent" which, for the credit of our country, we hope never to see again in this port.

No 5 of the River Plate Magazine was published on Monday: we will review it to-morrow.

The sub-secretary of Finance charges the Tribuna with a wilful falsehood respecting the admission of wool goods in the National Custom-houses, and states there was not a shadow of grounds whereon to base so unmeaning an invention.

In the Judicial list of yesterday we find the trial of the police officer Diaz, for the murder of Mr. Lynch, to be tried by backing him to pieces. It remains to be seen what punishment will be inflicted on the perpetrator of this shocking outrage.

On Monday we were informed that Flower was set at liberty: we see, however, by the list of cases to be tried to-day. As the suit is, therefore, in bonis, we will postpone further comments until the decree of the Court be passed.

The Committee of the Argentine Central railway we heard were to assemble on yesterday: we suppose the subscribers to the stock in this company will be required to pay the first call on their shares.

We have not yet seen the 1st No. of the Nacionalista, which we advertised for May 1st. It was to comprise four splendid lithographs: the Acado, Portela at Mass, a river in Brazil, and the invasion of Entre Rios.

The Nacionalista is about to appear every day, same size as the Standard; and we trust readers how the sheep farmers of Buenos Ayres are pushing beyond the frontier.

We would suggest that the popular book-sellers, Messrs. Mackern have purchased the copy-right of Mr. Rom's invaluable Table of Kickin this country sale, price $10. There is a regular run on so useful a publication, for no house of business can possibly do without it the commerce of Buenos Ayres is, moreover, much indebted to the laborious manager of the Bolsa, for this important service.

Count Barbolani was officially received, yesterday, at the National Government house as Resident Minister from the Italian Majesty, Victor Emmanuel. The same gentleman is accredited in a like capacity to the Government of Montevideo: he was formerly only Charge d'affaires, and is at present stopping in the Hotel de la Paix.

The gaucho census of the grand-bull given by one of our English merchants to the elite of Buenos Ayrean society. The invitations are variously said to number from 500 to 4000. Including President Mitre and all local celebrities.

THE FINANCE MINISTER

We are happy to see that the Finance Minister denies in toto, the dishonorable scheme published in last Sunday's 'Tribuna.' We confess, that we were somewhat surprised to think that M. Gonsalez should begin his financial career with so flagrant a violation, not only of the law of the land, but also of every principle of honor and justice. Dealing with the question, as it presented itself to us, we felt constrained to condemn, in the strongest language, the Minister who dared so to trifle with the country's credit.

We are but too glad to find room for the accompanying letter from the Minister, in answer to the merchants who so honorably came forward to lend money to the National Government in the hour of need.

Our colleague states that the article in question was not editorial, but from its diction every one will think otherwise. Only those who are in business can form an idea of the losses caused on the Bolsa by this scandalous publication. Patacons rose from 38.50 to 38.85 on Monday, owing to this Tribuna' blunder. The following is the Minister's letter:—

"Señores D. Anacasis Lamas, D. Mariano Cramer, D. E. Ochoa y D. Bernardo Iturraspe.

"Gentlemen,

"In reply to your letter, I can assure you that it is the intention of Government to devote to the compliance with the law of 3d September, 1860, the greater part of the funds obtained by the loan, and that whilst said law is in force, the Government will most religiously observe it, as much as the only means of strengthening its credit, as that it is for the interest of Government to maintain it.

"I am, &c.,

"LUCAS GONZALEZ.

"May 2, 1864."

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO

If there is any subject, of which we are heartily tired, it is the never-ending Flores' revolution. For the last twelve months this fellow has been running over the country, and notwithstanding all the nonsense published about the Liberator's army and victories, &c., Flores is just as far off from upsetting the Government as ever he was. However, some of our readers may still preserve some interest in the matter, we publish the following as the very latest:—

"On Saturday evening three chasques arrived in Montevideo, from Cerro Largo, who is stationed with his army at Florida. Flores is at a place called Chamizo. Flores, it appears, shows no disposition whatsoever to fight."

Madame d'Aubigne gave a splendid soiree musicale' on last Monday evening. All the elite of Montevideo attended.

On the 4th inst. a sumptuous party was to be given at the Hotel de la Paz, the Chevalier, an evening paper, calls attention to the quarantine regulations between Paraguay, the Argentine Republic, and Brazil, and states that Paraguayan vessels are not to open again as to the mission of M. Marmol to Brazil, as President Mitre and that empire have similar interests at stake in forcing Paraguay to take as limits what they dictate.

The rain has greatly benefited the crops, which were in a miserable state previously. The Government has received some splendid caballados, which are being sent on to General Moreno's army.

Business in Montevideo is dull, but the harbour is full of shipping.

The passengers taken forward to a good year. The flocks are all lambing.

THE CHAMPION 'HELGRAVE'

We are apprised that this splendid racer, which can find no competitor for the palm of superiority in the River Plate, is about to be sold to a gentleman in Brazil, and will shortly leave the scene of his triumphs for the last mentioned country. The owner is about to embark for England, and wishes to give all the horses of Buenos Ayres and Montevideo a last chance of running against him, or one round, with Belgrano. He therefore issues the challenge open (equal weights) for the term of eight days from date. Who will take up the glove?

B. Aves, May 4, 1864.

THE LIST OF DE ROOTS.

We perceive in the Montevideon papers that we received yesterday, that the little steamer "Fairy" once so renowned as the property of Bouinet, and so hermetically sportsighted in the part of Fosters celebrated lay entitled "De Roots who put his foot in it" is up at Salto in the Uruguay. The new proprietor of this charming little vessel is at ground which cling so many cherished associations, is about to put her on the line between Gualeguaychu and Frey Bentos. It is to be hoped that she will pay better than De Roots.

Wonderful News from E. Oriental

The 'Tribuna' published yesterday a supplement with the most astounding news from the rebel head-quarters, and announcing the complete triumph of Flores. It seems the amount of the news is this: The Colorados executed a splendid manœuvre on Gen. Moreno's flank, the latter being still ignorant of the fact or its object: the rebels have also secured several passes on the rivers Yi and Negro: communications with the Brazilian frontier are opened up through the sierras of Minas, the whole country has fallen into Flores' hands, excepting Montevideo, Salto, Paysandu, Maldonado, Colonia, Canaresubo, Canelones, Mercedes, Durazno, Florida, San Jose, Santa Lucia, Peron-gos, Artigas, &c.

CRICKET CLUB

Buenos Ayres, May 2, 1864.

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen,

Could you oblige several members of what was once the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club, by informing them what has become of the gentlemen who form the committee, where is the secretary, or if the club is in existence? Several new arrivals would be induced to join if the club were better managed.

It speaks very little for Englishmen, that in a place like Buenos Ayres, where so many reside, they do not exert themselves a little and support one of the most noble and ancient of their national field sports.

Yours truly,

SEVERAL CRICKETERS.

THE CAAGUAZU.

This unfortunate Argentine warsteamer is laid up at the Boca, and all the officers are complaining of the non-payment of their wages It would seem as if this devoted little steamer carried on business on the Credit Mobilier system, since from the captain to the cook not a farthing has been paid. We hear that his Excellency Sor. Gelly and Obes has some months ago purchased this non-paying steamer, and as there is a very audible murmur of discontent on Paseo Julio, we think it right to call his attention to the matter.

The ship-chandlers also complain that they have not received one brass farthing for their supplies, and owing to the debts belonging to the Government she cannot be libelled. We trust that the lessees of this steamer will have the good nature to pay off these claims before the matter gets further publicity.

THE ERA TRIAL-TRIP.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen—The insertion of the following lines in your paper of to-morrow will confer a favor on

Your obedient servant,

THOS. MENZIES.

Gualeguaychu S. N. Company.

The inclement weather of to-day having prevented the Committee of Management of this Company of the pleasure of receiving on board the Era the gentlemen whom they had the honor to invite, and the circumstance of the steamer being compelled to leave to-morrow for Gualeguaychu, the 'piece' to the Tiger is unavoidably postponed until the vessel's return from the above-mentioned port—when another day will be made which will duly announced in the daily papers. The same cards of invitation will be available on occasion.

By order of the Committee,

THOS. MENZIES, Secretary.

LOCAL EVENTS

Not finished yet—On Thursday last, about daybreak, whilst a person was proceeding quietly along the road to Flores, about one square from Billinghurst's quinta, an individual stopped out and attempted to rob him, but as he carried a good thick stick, and what's better know how to use it, and three milkmen at this time making their appearance, the intended robber took to his heels. It is a great pity that the vagabond did not wait to be rubbed down with a white-thorn towel.

Sudden Death.—On Sunday afternoon a Señora Sustáita dropped down dead in the railway of San Fernando. The cause of this melancholy event is not known.

To the Pueblo.—On the 10th inst. expires the time allowed by the Municipality for any persons who may have rendered insignificant service to the State to send in their claims for reward. Should you, Latigo, and we send in our claims! Let us be patriotic and not ruin the nation; for if we two sent in our claim for important services rendered, we might swamp the whole country by the magnitude of our rewards.

Distinguished Arrival.—On Sunday last, on board the Italian war-steamer Palmironaro, arrived from Montevideo, Snr. Barbolani, the Italian Minister, who comes accredited to the Argentine Government. On drawing the Parliamentarie, that vessel saluted the minister with the customary honors.

The Western Railway.—This railway will shortly be open to the public as far as Villa Lujan. On Thursday last a train consisting of 36 lumber trucks and a passenger car went as far as that town. The inauguration will take place on the 25th inst.

Shekaddled.—On Sunday night, about half-past eleven p.m., whilst two sereños were conversing an individual to the Cazon Hotel, along Calle Riva davia, they were accosted by a young man who begged the favor of their light; this, with the usual politeness and amiable kindness of the two official gentlemen (who are always perfectly willing to do anything for one another with duty) was granted. Whilst the young man was impregnating his cigar with fire, the prisoner bolted and took refuge in a neighbouring house; the ereure, unable to enter the house without orders, sought consolation from their whistles, and with such good effect that two hours afterwards a lieutenant arrived at the scene of the diabolical noise, and then they entered the house, alas, not to find the prisoner. They however captured the votary to the nicotine weed; and we trust that he will be severely punished for the verdancy displayed in remaining so long in company with the police—"Evil communications corrupt good manners."

The Indians.—The Indian malones seem to have been general, as these vermin have also appeared in Tunas, Province of Cordoba. The chasque which Coronel Machado is supposed to have despatched for this from Tandil has not arrived, and it is feared that some evil has befallen him. However, we know that under date of 29th ult. Colonel Machado has requested leave to come to this city.—"Pueblo." It is an extraordinary request for a military man to make—to be allowed to leave his post in time of danger. Should the request be granted, we may expect to see shortly after his arrival in town of Buenos Ayres, an advertisement in one of the native papers 'Ama de leche.'

Weekly Standard.—To-morrow being a holiday, we publish our weekly edition to-day.

THE FAIRY.

In another column there is mention of Boutinet's steamer, which is confounded with the new one of same name just arrived from England. The first is in Salto the second at Montevideo; it would be well to change the name of either.

The sudden fall in specie is attributed to the Minister's letter published in this morning's "Nacion," and also the fact that four millions of paper money are to be burnt on Saturday. There is a general feeling of indignation on the Bolsa at the 'Tribuna,' having published a fictitious scheme for doing away with the banknote, and the merchants look with disdain on the language of the Minister's letter, and think that the 'Tribuna' people know more about the matter than what they wish to give the public.

We refrain from our opinion on the matter, but if his Excellency is at all desirous to know the opinions of the mercantile body in general, we do not hesitate in saying that it is the greatest distrust. Either M. Gonzalez has been too frank in his letter of this morning, or he has not been sufficiently explicit; for there cannot be the least doubt but he pleads guilty to at least having talked of abolishing the burnings. The time probably has not yet arrived when it is necessary to speak in sufficiently plain terms touching this unpleasant question; sufficient is the day for the evil thereof; but we can assure M. Gonzalez that if he entertains such views as those attributed to him, he will meet with an opposition from every man in the country who is worth five paper dollars.

The 'Tribuna' circulated some sham supplement on the Bolsa to-day about the Flores revolution having triumphed. As a matter of course no one believed one word of it; in fact Flores has become the greatest fiasco in town; every one save the people in the 'Tribuna' office is fairly tired out of the matter.

From what cause we know not, but it is a remarkable fact that business on the Bolsa is daily diminished. Speculation is dying out in Buenos Ayres.

Gleason, GABRIEL, Professor of Surgery, Attends all diseases of the Teeth, with scientific precision, and by diagnosis with the most approved instruments, at his Rooms, 24, Calle San Martin, where he may be consulted.

Mrs. GABRIEL
THE OLD ESTABLISHED
DENTIST
(GRADUATE)

27, Harley Street, Cavendish Square, and 85, Lamb's Conduit Street (near Holborn), LONDON, Calle San Martin, 24.

Further at the extremity of the globe, by forwarding particulars and taking the measure of the mouth, with an impression of the model, artificial teeth will be supplied, of the most reliable description.

DARLINGS CELEBRATED CHEMICAL PREPARATION, for preserving the Teeth and Gums, from infancy to old age, is daily patronised by the Royal Family, the nobility, and gentry of England, and is recommended by the most eminent faculty in every quarter of the globe. Sold by all respectable chemists and perfumers throughout the world, price 2s. 6d. per bottle.

Gleason's Unrivalled Tincture for Teeth, which explodes the erroneous opinion that acids destroy the enamel, may be had of either Agents, or will be forwarded direct on receipt of 30 stamps.

Patron of a LETTER from a GENTLEMAN at WORCESTER.

SEASONABLE NOTICE.

EXTENSIVE FRAUDS.

LEA and Perrins discovered that several of the Oil-shop Keepers had been supplying a spurious imitation of their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, for which the Public could obtain the genuine article only from the Proprietors, or their Agents. In order, therefore, to put a stop to these frauds, L. & P. instructed their several Agents to write their names across the Labels of the Genuine Sauce, and to sign the Wrappers, Labels, Bottles, and Corks.

It is by further give notice that they will protect their Rights by Law against any Person who shall counterfeit their Labels, Wrappers, Bottles, Stoppers, or Corks, or who shall refill their Bottles with any spurious Sauce.

Lea and Perrins' Names are engraved on the Wrappers, Labels, Bottles, and Stoppers.

Sold by Messrs. Crosse and Blackwell, and other Oilmen and Merchants, London.

SAVINGS BANK
CREDIT MAUA & C°
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great compotisms of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank to which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have no; hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of sickness or old age, instead of squandering them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other trivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourin-gd.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1866.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every six months

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can upon an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor leaves the Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Subscriptions in Paper Money.

The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in this city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions :—

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1866, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of those particular sections.

By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.
